GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Secretary Gratz Hanly, just returned from a trip to New Orleans in the interest of the Newport spring meeting, makes the following statement touching the racing prospects of his track:

"The prospects were never better than they are for racing at Newport this season. I have made arrangements for a special train of twelve cars to leave New Orleans for Newport the day after the close of the Crescent City meeting. The train will come north on passenger schedule time, and will arrive five days before our meeting begins. This will give them plenty of time to get rested up from the car fever. I now have applications from the old-line guard of owners, which includes the following well-known horsemen: Bob Tucker, 12 head; Captain Buck Franklin, 12 head; Ed Fitzgerald, 10 head; Si Hughes, 9 head; Hardy Durham, 10 head; Henry McDaniel, 20 head; W. M. Rogers, 25 head; Texas Smith, 14 head; Dan O'Brien, 7 head; Bill Steele, 12 head; Tony Licalzi, 12 head. 'Gene Leigh and J. E. Seagram will send select strings to Newport. Leigh expects to have about 15 head at Newport from his big stable of 58 horses, now at Louisville.

"Seagram will send in charge of Mr. Charles Boyle five head of crack racers. This is the first time Canada's representative horseman and sportsman has raced in this part of the country. There will be no lack of good jockey talent. While in New Orleans I had a talk with Mr. Fowler. He is in favor of an open ring, and if we can see our way clear we will not have a syndicate ring. The presiding judge has not yet been decided upon. The associate judges will be Messrs. Queen and Smith, 'Curly' Brown will do the starting.

"I expect Mr. Fowler back by March 15, when final arrangements will be made for the meeting, which is to open April 8 and continue until May 19, inclusive, notwithstanding the report to the contrary."

In writing up the Eastin & Larabee horses now at Louisville the correspondent of a Cincinnati newspaper says:

"Ben Holladay, now a magnificent looking six-year-old, is, of course, the star of the Eastin & Larabee string. The big bay son of Hanover and Mollie L. is the perfect picture of equine health, strength and good temper. As every one knows, he is one of the prominent entries in the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps. Mr. Wimmer says his royal charge is in fine fettle, though, of course, he is weeks and weeks away from a race, having had no training yet beyond daily walks and rubdowns. He daily eats his 11 quarts of oats and 20 pounds of hay, with an occasional allowance of 'mash,' with all the appetite of a horse in perfect health, and he is as sweet-tempered as a horse can be. Mr. Wimmer says that Holladay, who is now taking things easy, preparatory to the active training which will begin in April, ought to show rare form this year, as he never seemed stronger or healthier in his career. He will have a month's hard work in Louisville, and will then be shipped, about the last of April, to Gravesend.

"Ben Holladay will be a mighty hard horse to beat this year in the all-aged division," said Mr. Wimmer, as he stood lovingly stroking the brown muzzle which the horse stretched out to him through the stable door. 'He's good and strong, and unless some accident happens to him in his training, he'll be fit as a fiddle when the eastern racing season begins. I am going to go slow with him and am not going to take any chance by pushing him too hard in his work. I don't think, though, that he is apt to meet with any mishaps in his work, as he's a horse that takes to training just like a duck takes to water. He's a great weight, carrier and a good stayer over a distance of ground, besides having a nice turn of speed. All his races have shown that. And as for gameness, they don't turn 'em out any better than this big fellow here."

Concerning training conditions and prospects at the New York tracks, the Sun of Monday says: "A visit to the training quarters at Sheepshead Bay, Brighton Beach and Gravesend yesterday found the trainers as optimistic as usual, but inclined to grow profane when the thermometer or barometer was mentioned. One of them probably voiced the sentiments of the rest when he said:

"We are doing the go-as-you-please act around the sheds, but it grows monotonous and we want to get out in the open. That the horses feel about the same way is shown when we take them out for an occasional airing on the boulevard. Then they try to get the bit in their teeth, and on their return are ready to eat everything in sight. Physically, we have a sounder lot than in several years, but we are sadly handicapped by the weather. Still there is no reason to fear, so far, that we will not have our early candidates pretty nearly ripe when the bugle announces the opening of the eastern schedule at Washington on April 3. At the worst, we will be in line at Aqueduct, while we cannot fail to be ready for Morris Park."

Weights for the Washington Handicap to be run at Bunnings April 15 have been announced. They are as follows:

Asked recently how Eastin & Larabee's promising three-year-old Kinley Mack secured his odd name trainer Peter Wimmer said that it was because Mr. Larabee, who is a great admirer of the president, wanted to name his colt after him, and, finding that the name McKinley had already been claimed, he got as close to it as he could with the odd sounding name of Kinley Mack. He is a good looking animal, and Mr. Wimmer expects much of him this year.

MAHONEY & CO.'S REPUDIATION.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Mahoney & Co., of this city, deny having any connection with the future book on the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps, which has been extensively advertised in Chicago and other western cities over their name. The police are looking up the advertising Mahoney & Co.

MAY RACE AT CLEVELAND.

"The uncertainty regarding the baseball situation in this city is reviving the talk of a local running track, and it would not be surprising if a company should be organized to build one here in the near future. A city like Cleveland if deprived of the kind of baseball that it will support will naturally turn to some other kind of sport, and there are those who think that the times are ripe for a first-class running track here. A city the size of Cleveland without a running meeting in its vicinity is something unheard of in these times, and the only wonder is that someone has not recognized what an excellent opportunity is afforded here before," says the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"There has been much talk of a running track here and the ground has been frequently looked over by parties interested in the sport, but nothing has ever come of it. Now, however, the prospects are exceedingly bright. For some time a correspondence has been going on between some well known running track promoters and parties in this city and the result is that in a few days some of those most interested will come on here to look over the situation.

"H. H. Dargan, of St. Louis, is one of the prime movers of the project. He has been connected with some of the best tracks in the country and once before came very close to locating one here. H. T. Rodman, the local agent for Dun & Co., who has been interested in running horse enterprises with Dargan often in the past, has been looking over the local situation for him."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The New York World says that the important New York racing associations, Westchester, Coney Island and Brooklyn, have at last yielded to the demand by horsemen for increased values for overnight races. It is not probable that any official announcement will be made, but the fact of the increase will be evident when the program for the first big metropolitan meeting, beginning at Morris Park May 6, is published. A meeting of the officers of the three clubs, held about a week ago, considered the proposition that purses be raised, and decided that the prosperous condition of the turf in the east would justify an increase of values. A new scale of values was agreed upon, but just what this is only the officers of the three race-tracks know.

Apparently the relegation of the Lexington racetrack to a place in the list of things that were is not to take place immediately. The order of Mr. Charles Green to owners, trainers and jockeys having horses at the Kentucky Association course to vacate the premises by March 1 has been rescinded, and they will be allowed to remain indefinitely.

At Ferris, Texas, on February 19, the stables of J. M. Batchelor were destroyed by fire and J. M. B., bay horse, foaled 1891, by Don Carlos—Juno, by Cariboo out of Reply, by Enquirer, was burned.

The trial of the indicted Bennings officials and bookmakers, carried over from last fall, has been set for Friday and Saturday of this week in the District of Columbia Criminal Court.

Off at first break to a good start. The first five were all driving hard. Takanassee was the best, and well ridden down her horses in game style. Jim Gore II. ran a good race. He was closing fast at the end. DAVE S. quit thirty yards from the finish. He was under keen pressure for three furlongs. Can I See 'Em was closing fast at the finish. Eva Rice, off poorly, closed a big gap.

Scratched—10362 Guide Rock, 104; 10747 Brighton, 101.

Takanassee, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. DAVE S., place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Jim Gore II., show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Cavalier—Daybreak.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. It was a driving finish. The Dragon got up in the last few strides. He was lucky and probably the best. Sheik had no speed. Hanlight cut across in front of Free Hand and Mouzeltoff at the head of stretch. The former had to pull up. Cynthia D. stopped after running a furlong. Free Hand dislikes to go a route.

Off at first break to a good start. Won handily. Double Dummy raced J. H. C. into submission and came away nicely in the last sixteenth. He had plenty in reserve at the end. Admetus was driving to the limit. So was J. H. C. It was a three horse race.

Scratched—(10720) Clay Poynter, 113.

Time, 2:56, 51, 1:18, 1:32.

Winner—Ch. g. by Sanford—Georgie M.
Off at first break to a good start. The first five were very busy. Rush Fields and Lucky Monday were the best. They fought it out for five furlongs and were staggering; the next three were closing fast at the finish. Alamo was under restraint early and closed fast. Dunn was no help to Midglen. He is good. Tole Simmons had but little speed and no stamina. John Sullivan ran to his horses fast around the turn, but was shut out and eased up at finish. Hairpin had some early speed, but was short. Never helped in running Hairpin into the ground.

Overweights—Midglen, 4 pounds; Easter John, 1.

Rush Fields, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Lucky Monday, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Mordecai, show, 2 to 1. Midglen, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Hayden Edwards—Carmencita.
Off at first break to a good start. The first two were driving all the last furlong. Deyo got her nose in front in the last stride. O'Connor outrode Odum. Zeno should have won. Randazzo ran wide on the turn and tired in the stretch. Bright Night ran an honest race. Russell and Marie C. both showed speed. Crystalline ran a dull race.

Winner—Ch. g. by Cassatt—Brigand Girl.
Start good. Won easily; smart drive for second place. Judge Stoutter was best, well ridden and in going to suit him. He is good, too. Tony Licalzi began slowly and ran an honest race, closing a lot of ground and wearing Widow Jones down in the last few strides. The mud suits the Widow. She ran her race. Opponent did not. He was shut off around the turn, but did not perform to the mark. La Maroma wobbled sadly in the stretch after showing speed. Novia was dull and Rucker duller.

Scratched—10728 Al. 108; 10724 Ricardo, 108; 10734 Roadwarmer, 108; 10494 Homestake, 105; 10697 Amelia Fonso, 105; 10764 Socialist, 104; (10724) Glen Ann, 102; 10641 Aluminum, 104.
